- (B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and dead freight is to be paid by the Goods as marked or indicated by the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
- (B) The Carrier is entitled to load and receive the Goods or to employ a person or a corporation for the loading and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, any body so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay such charges whether delivery is taken over side or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as they are current by discharge, by day and if required by the Carrier also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is entitled to call upon him to take delivery, or if they are not removed, although the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on or to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack, or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled.

- (A) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any loss of or damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even though before loading or after discharge from the Vessel and whether found in contract or in tort, unless caused recklessly and with knowledge by the Carrier that such loss would probably result.

17. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES

- (A) The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise however given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel, at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warfare operations or hostilities, the container may be devanded and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labor troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, render or leave the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanded and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to in all the preceding paragraphs under this Article, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provision of this Article shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as provided in this Article and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

18. LIEN ON GOODS

- (A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, which lien shall survive delivery, for all freight, dead freight, demurrage, detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading, and any other sums due to the Carrier or to the Merchant, and the Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fall to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred, the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
- (B) If the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

19. FREIGHT AND CHARGES

- (A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier, but the Carrier for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
 - (1) The difference of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
 - (2) costs and expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
 - (3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
- (B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon receipt of the Goods by the Carrier, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless of whether the Vessel or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to in all the preceding paragraphs under this Article, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provision of this Article shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as provided in this Article and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.
- (C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
- (D) Goods received by the Carrier cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except on the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
- (E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless the unavailability is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
- (F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against:
 - (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and
 - (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
- (G) If in the Carrier's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier at its discretion may, by itself or through Subcontractors, and as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
- (H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.

20. NOTICE OF CLAIM AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER

- (A) UNLESS notice of loss of or damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing to the Carrier at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of delivery of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
- (B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including but not limited to liability for nondelivery, misdelivery, delay, loss, or damage, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered. Suit shall not be considered to have been "brought" within the time specified unless process shall have been served on a jurisdiction obtained over the Carrier within such time.

21. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE

- (A) The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
- (B) Insofar as loss of or damage to or in connection with the Goods was caused during the port of the custody or carriage to which the applicable version of the Hague Rules applies: (1) The Merchant and the Carrier shall be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods in an amount exceeding the minimum allowable limit per package or unit in the applicable version of the Hague Rules, when the U.S. COGSA applies it U.S. $500 per package or, in case of Goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, unless the value (and nature) of the Goods higher than this amount has been declared in writing by the Merchant before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier and inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and extra freight has been paid as required. If the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value. Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value. If the declared value has been knowingly and fraudulently misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
- (2) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered to be the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 21.

22. GENERAL AVERAGE; NEW JASON CLAUSE

- (A) General average shall be adjusted, settled, and settled at the port of place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port of place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and an advance and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
- (B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a sailing ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such sailing ship belonged to strangers.

23. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION

- (A) If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident, and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as a part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

24. CARRIAGE OF METAL PRODUCTS; LUMBER; VEHICLES; BULK PRODUCTS; COTTON

- (A) The term "apparent good order and condition" when used in this Bill of Lading does not mean:
 - (1) with reference to iron, steel, or metal products, that the Goods when received were free from visible rust or moisture, nicks, dents or bends;
 - (2) with reference to lumber, timber, plywood, or other wood products, that the Goods when received were free from visible stains, discoloration, moisture, shakes, holes, warps, chafage, breakage, or splitting;
 - (3) with reference to vehicles which included automobiles, trucks, rolling stocks, tractors, and machinery that the Goods when received were free of scratches, dents, nicks, bends, holes, or cuts;
 - (4) with respect to cotton or cotton products, that when the Goods were received the covering was sufficient, untoned, or in sound condition, or that there was no damages resulting from the condition of the covering.
- If the Merchant so requests, a substitute Bill of Lading will be issued forthwith upon any notations as to the foregoing that may appear on the mate's or tally clerk's receipts or similar documents.
- (B) The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver iron, steel, or metal products unless each piece and bundle is distinctly and durably marked and each bundle is securely fastened and tagged so that each piece and bundle can be distinguished at the port of discharge.
- (C) When oil or other fluids are carried in bulk in the Vessel's tanks, they shall be pumped into and out of the Vessel at the risk and expense of the Merchant; all appliances for putting in and taking out the fluid will be provided by the Merchant; the Vessel will furnish steam for discharge, if required; and the pumping out of the Vessel's tanks shall be deemed to be complete delivery of all oil or other fluid delivered to the Vessel. With respect to such cargo, the Carrier shall not be liable for evaporation, spillage, or other loss in weight, volume, or contents and shall be liable only for leakage shown by the Merchant to be due to negligence, fault, or failure on the part of the Carrier. In the event of any leakage or spillage of oil or other fluids the Merchant shall accept such portion thereof that has leaked or spilled from the tanks in which stowed or contained (and from any other tanks on the Vessel containing such oil or other fluid) and run into bulk, or otherwise, as may be approved by the Carrier, and such allowance shall be deemed a full settlement for any loss in weight, volume, or contents. Notwithstanding any provision in this Bill of Lading to the contrary, in the case of agreements or freight engagements for the transportation of liquid Goods in bulk, the terms of the Bill of Lading, in addition to the terms and conditions of the bill of lading, shall govern the relations between the Carrier and the Merchant. If there is any conflict between the terms of said agreements or freight engagements and this Bill of Lading, the terms of this Bill of Lading shall govern.
